Who We Are

We are Kaderes Peasants Development PLC (KPD PLC)—a farmer-owned public company headquartered in Karagwe, Kagera Region, Tanzania. Since our establishment in 2008, we have grown into one of East Africa's most transformative agribusiness platforms. Rooted in the development legacy of KADERES NGO, we exist to shift smallholder agriculture from subsistence to enterprise, from vulnerability to value.

Today, we stand united as over 450,000 empowered smallholder farmers, including more than 18,000 active coffee growers and 250,000 bean farmers, organized through AMCOS cooperatives and supported by advanced infrastructure.

Through ownership, professionalism, and shared purpose, we manage a vertically integrated value chain—from farm to global market—centered on coffee, beans, and vanilla.

We are not just producers. We are partners in rural development, architects of inclusive trade, and stewards of sustainable transformation.

Shared with Partners

We don't serve farmers — we co-create ecosystems with them. Every cooperative, buyer, development agency, and government partner we work with is integrated into a shared impact mission. We believe in long-term systems, not fragmented projects.

Our Origin Story

We began in 1997—not as a company, but as a movement. At the time, coffee farmers across Karagwe were trapped in cycles of poor pricing, exploitative middlemen, and market exclusion. In response, fourteen farmers, led by Mr. Leonard Kachebonaho, formed a grassroots coalition to fight for justice in the coffee value chain.

This coalition became Karagwe Development and Relief Services (KADERES), a development-focused NGO focused on restoring dignity, infrastructure, and income to forgotten farming communities. We didn't just advocate—we built. From trust to cooperatives, from cooperatives to trade, we laid the foundation of what would later become KPD PLC in 2008.

We saw that farmers were locked out not only from trade—but from entire value chains. Inputs were unreliable. Post-harvest losses were enormous. Access to finance was scarce. Women lacked agency. Youth had no reason to stay. We realized that the challenge wasn't about production—it was systemic.

In response, we evolved. We built infrastructure. We partnered with ministries and buyers. We trained field agents and youth. And when the scale of change outgrew traditional structures, we responded by creating new ones.

KPD PLC was never just a business. It is a platform of transformation—one that is owned by its people, powered by trust, and designed to regenerate opportunity from the ground up.

Our Evolution timeline

Our Mission

KPD's mission is to facilitate the stakeholder farmers (shareholders of KPD) to get better prices for their produce. KPD Plc main strategy is to make markets work for smallholder farmers through Structured Trading Systems and registration of KPD farmers with specialty markets. These markets (premium quality, organic or fair trade) allow farmers to concentrate on quality, fetch a higher value added and obtain more stable prices.

Our Vision

To build a future where every smallholder farmer is a competitive market player—empowered by structure, connected to value, and rewarded for quality.

Ownership

We build with and for our farmers.

OUR COFFEE ORIGINS

From Tanzania's
Highlands to the World

Arabica from Mbinga and Mbozi

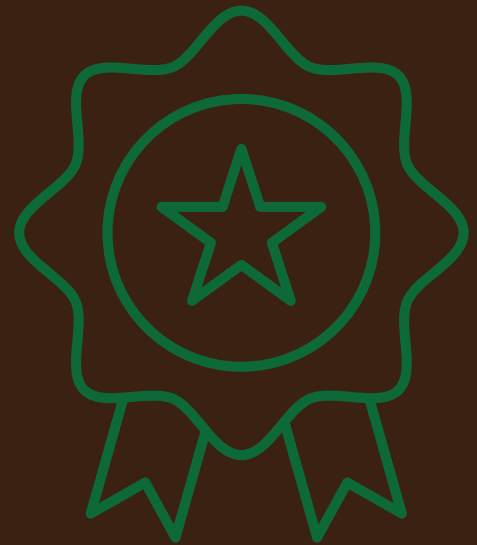

Grown in the fertile highlands of Mbinga (Ruvuma Region) and Mbozi (Songwe Region), our 100% Arabica coffee is known for its smooth body, bright acidity, and floral-chocolate notes. These regions benefit from high altitudes, rich volcanic soils, and optimal rainfall—creating ideal conditions for specialty coffee cultivation.

We work closely with AMCOS and certified farmers in these regions to preserve quality at every stage—from selective picking to clean post-harvest processing. This Arabica is a staple of our premium and organic market offerings.

Robusta from Kagera

Our Robusta comes from the western lakeside soils of Kagera Region, where volcanic sediment and consistent moisture produce beans with a full body, deep aroma, and excellent crema retention. Sourced from our founding farmer cooperatives, Kagera Robusta represents both our heritage and our future.

As the home of KPD PLC, Kagera is not only a supply region—it is the epicenter of our model for cooperative-led, traceable, and fair-trade Robusta exports.

All our coffee—from Mbinga's highland Arabica to Kagera's bold Robusta—is managed through structured sourcing systems that prioritize quality, transparency, and farmer ownership. Each lot is certified under Fairtrade, 4C, or IMO Organic, and fully traceable from farm to export.
